Manitoba/Saskatchewan Sire Profiles

Sixteen Manitoba and Saskatchewan thoroughbred sires have registered for the lucrative breeding programs offered by CTHS Manitoba. We continue our sire profiles this week with Vengeful Wildcat and Edison. There will be an excellent selection of stallions to choose from this spring for Manitoba mare owners!

Manitoba Sire Profile: Vengeful Wildcat

A multiple stakes-winning sprinter with elite speed and a deep pedigree, Vengeful Wildcat offers breeders an exciting opportunity to infuse their bloodlines with proven speed, class, and durability. CLICK HERE to learn more about Vengeful Wildcat.

Saskatchewan Sire Profile: Edison (Bernardini-Heart of Grace by Exploit)

2014 Canadian Derby (G3) winner Edison breaks his maiden at Gulfstream Park for trainer Todd Pletcher. Click the image above to learn more about Edison.

By one of A.P. Indy's most influential stallion sons, 2006 Champion 3-Year-Old Colt Bernardini, 2014 Canadian Derby (G3) winner Edison offers breeders access to a sire line responsible for producing world-class runners, including Travers Stakes (G1) winner Stay Thirsty, Pegasus World Cup Invitational (G1) winner Art Collector, and multiple Breeders' Cup champions. CLICK HERE to learn more about Edison.

A Snapshot in Time by Bob Gates

This week's honoree for our 'Love Month' themed Snapshot in Time is One and Only. The multiple stakes-winning mare, who gets the ultimate Valentine's Day honour, was only on the track in 1982 and 1983.

On May 14, 1983, One and Only was ridden by local rider Joseph Selyem (who, by the way, prefers Joseph to Joe) and trained by Harry Kube. Her 2-year-old season saw the Stoneacres star win six of her 11 starts, including the Damselle, Stockton, Buffalo, and La Verendrye Stakes, as well as the Winnipeg Futurity Trial. (Gerry Hart photo)

Eagles Soar, Chiefs Stumble: A Shocking Super Bowl Upset

No one saw this coming. In a game that left Chiefs fans stunned and anti-Chiefs fans celebrating, the Philadelphia Eagles dominated Kansas City from the very first snap, cruising to a 40-22 victory. The unexpected blowout had everything—from relentless defensive pressure on Patrick Mahomes to a viral shot of a disappointed Taylor Swift in the stands. How did it all go so wrong for the Chiefs? Let's break it down.
